

DreamTeam im Zaubertal

Your personal specialist for organic strategy development

It`s our high level aim to enable managers to become real DreamTeams with a good balance of hearblood and leadership.

Our ambition is to support you and your team on your way to an energetic spirit of leadership. Between organism and organisation.

We focus on this new approach of powerful strategy positioning paired with a good and respectfull human sense.

We accompany management teams in exclusive workshops on their way to good committed long-term-strategies.

We help our clients networking by:

Energy Talks are quarterly brunches with an outstanding person, ensuring to grab for participants lost energy poles.

Our experienced personal trainer Anita helps stressed leaders in our Weekdowner-concept to calm down at the end of an almost challenging week. A come-to-earth one-hour-class with elements of yoga, pilates and body art.

The classic DreamTeam seminar concentrates on a worthy and effective relation between CEO and Assistant, to enrich their methodes of working together and enable an intensive co-learning of other CEO-Ass-Teams in a day full of mutual esteem.

The secrets of power of a good skilled assistance will be trained on base of experienced assistances, coming together to develop their skills in an open minded workshop.

“Playing with the border zone” and “Punch&Power” - two lectures on the edge between leadership and work-life-balance.

Erich Schönleitner, founder of DreamTeam and senior consultant, doctor-degree in economics, long-term-experience as CEO in the Austrian construction industry and retailing group. Member of the board of a multi-national industry group.
